United Nations Association in Canada

UNA-Canada is a registered charity, founded in 1946, with a mandate to educate and engage Canadians in support for and understanding of the United Nations and its issues which have a global impact. A Canadian NGO, UNA-Canada has a wide variety of programmes and activities through which to build Canadian capacity to identify and address emerging international issues on a national basis and to provide a foresight and policy research capacity underpinning this innovative programming. With a professional, national secretariat in Ottawa, UNA-Canada derives much of its strength and community outreach from its network of 15 volunteer-based, branches. Working with the private and public sector, academia, community leaders, like-minded NGOs as well as multilateral organizations, UNA-Canada provides a place for Canadians to offer their made-in-Canada solutions to challenges confronting the global commons and to develop skills in living together in peace and prosperity. Key programmes target Canadian youth, human rights, sustainable development, environment, peacebuilding and corporate social responsibility. For more information we invite you to visit our website.
