About Us

Canada Green Corps is UNA-Canada’s initiative for tackling youth un- and underemployment while boosting Canada’s green economy. It offers a unique opportunity to provide meaningful green jobs for youth furthest from employment.

Two Programmes

- Science Horizons
- Science and Technology Internship Programme (STIP)
Science Horizons helps organizations hire post secondary graduates for placements in the environmental science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) fields. These placements will provide hands on work experience and training to protect the environment and/or support the adoption of clean technology.

Overview

- All placements must be in a STEM field and protect the environment and/or the adoption of clean technology, but the position itself can be a non-STEM job.
- Up to 80% wage subsidies, up to 12 months (minimum 6 months) and up to $20,000
- Wrap-around Services are available (up to $5,000)

Participant Eligibility

- 15 - 30 years of age (at the start of employment)
- Canadian citizens, permanent residents, or refugee status
- Legally able to work in Canada and in the relevant province or territory
- Completed post-secondary education
- New jobs/hires after April 1st, 2022
- Working full-time (minimum 30 hrs/week)
STIP is dedicated to creating and providing quality green employment opportunities for youth in the natural resource sector. These green jobs should create positive environmental outcomes and have a strong tie to one of the natural resources sectors: energy, forestry, mining and earth sciences.

STIP Overview
